≪ API

Web Page Module

- canGoBack
- canGoForward
- clipRect
- content
- cookies
- customHeaders
- event
- focusedFrameName
- frameContent
- frameName
- framePlainText
- frameTitle
- frameUrl
- framesCount
- framesName
- libraryPath
- navigationLocked
- offlineStoragePath
- offlineStorageQuota
- ownsPages
- pagesWindowName
- pages
- paperSize
- plainText
- scrollPosition
- settings
- title
- url
- viewportSize
- windowName
- zoomFactor

- addCookie
- childFramesCount
- childFramesName
- clearCookies
- close
- currentFrameName
- deleteCookie
- evaluateAsync
- evaluateJavaScript
- evaluate
- getPage
- goBack
- goForward
- go
- includeJs
- injectJs
- openUrl
- open
- release
- reload
- renderBase64
- renderBuffer
- render
- sendEvent
- setContent
- stop
- switchToChildFrame
- switchToFocusedFrame
- switchToFrame
- switchToMainFrame
- switchToParentFrame
- uploadFile

- Callback Triggers
- onAlert
- onCallback
- onClosing
- onConfirm
- onConsoleMessage
- onError
- onFilePicker
- onInitialized
- onLoadFinished
- onLoadStarted
- onNavigationRequested
- onPageCreated
- onPrompt
- onResourceError
- onResourceReceived
- onResourceRequested
- onResourceTimeout
- onUrlChanged

Web Page Module

To start using, you must `require` a reference to the `webpage` module then use it to create an instance:

```
var webPage = require('webpage');
var page = webPage.create();
```

© Copyright 2010-2018 Ariya Hidayat — Homepage design by Maurice Svay — Documentation design by Jamie Mason.